OBITUARIES

MRS. FRANK BLACKMON
Mrs. Mattie Blackmon, wife of Frank Blackmon, died Oct. 22 at her home in Elba, following a long illness. She was born in Coffee County and had lived her lifetime here. She was 52 years old and a member of the Danley Cross Roads Church of Christ. Surviving are her husband, Frank Blackmon, one son, Sam Davis; two daughters, Mrs. Barbara Stewart, Mrs. L. G. Gilman; two brothers, Armon & Lili McCarty; two sisters, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Lizzie Hall. Funeral services were held on Oct. 22 at Danley Cross Roads Church of Christ. Rev. Ike Williams officiating. Interment was in the church cemetery, Hayes Funeral Home directing.

MRS. DELLA CODY
Mrs. Della Cody, highly respected, died at her home Oct. 20, following an illness of about 10 days. A paralytic stroke was the immediate cause of her death. She was born in Coffee County and had lived here her lifetime. She was 82 years old. She was a member of the Assembly of God church. Surviving are one son, J. G. Cody; three sisters, Mrs. Lena Donaldson, Mrs. Lottie Tucker and Mrs. Malley Carpenter. Funeral services were held on Oct. 21 at Danley Cross Roads Church of Christ. Rev. C. M. Messick officiating. Interment was in Danley Cross Roads cemetery, Hayes Funeral Home directing.

BOBBY BRUNSON OUT FOR SEASON
In the game played at Florida Friday, the Tigers lost to the Braves. Bobby Brunson was out for the season. He had been holding down a regular spot as a pitcher. Bobby was hurt in the game. He was hit by a line drive. He was unable to continue. He will be out for the rest of the season. Bobby was immediately after he made a tackle. A Florida player struck him a side-swinging blow which tore several ligaments loose in his leg.

Totsye Dismukes Is Miss Elba Winner; Set To Enter Dothan Finals
Totsye Dismukes was crowned Miss Elba in competition at the Elba Theater Tuesday night. Twelve girls vied for the crown which Laverne Perkins placed on Miss Dismukes' head. Miss Perkins was winner of the contests in 1950 and 1951. Runners-up were Elaine Crook and Peggy Hudson.

Absentee Balloting Total Running Low
Mrs. W. R. Crook, who has charge of absentee balloting in Coffee County in the general election Nov. 4, stated Tuesday morning that up to this time she had only received 23 absentee ballots. This is considerably less than the number received at the corresponding time before the May Democratic primary. Mrs. Crook stated there does not seem to be as much interest in the November general election as there was in the primary.

THREE DISCHARGED
Cpl. Willie M. Evans Jr., R. 5, Cpl. James M. Kemp, R. 1, and Pfc. Jemison Gray, R. 9, completed processing for relief from active military duty at the Separation Center, Ft. Jackson, on Oct. 13. Pfc. Tommie F. Mauldin, R. 4, was also discharged.

Floral Pastes 26-19 Defeat On Elba Tiger Grid Warriors
The Elba Tigers went down to defeat Thursday night at the hands of Floral, 26-19, in a game played at Elba. The Tigers scored touchdowns in the first three quarters and led 12-0 at a touchdown. Floral added another TD and extra point in the third period to make it 19-12. It seemed they had the game on ice. But Floral came back and even the score 19-19 before the stanza ended. In the final period Elba was unable to break through Floral's defense while their opponents ripped off consistent gains and another TD. John Milton Wise passing to Tommie F. Mauldin for good yardage but other attempts at passing were nullified by the inability of the line to hold. On the other hand, Elba's defense was full of holes, leaking through the center and around the ends, as well as having an ineffective pass defense. Jimmy Bowden, Elba's star fullback, was outstanding and his run around left end for 62 yards and a touchdown was the feature of the game. J. Wise also made a nice scoring run. Tommy Wise scored an extra point. Ward P. M. Harrison, Al Harrison and Moore starred for Floral.

Homecoming Festivities Are on Friday
A parade Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock will mark the homecoming activities at the high school for 1952. The entire student body will be in the parade. Numerous business houses and the clubs at the high school are expected to have floats in the parade. Open house at the school is set for an hour between 3 and 4 o'clock. From 5 to 7 o'clock the Junior class will put on a barbecue dinner for the faculty and the entire Junior-Senior banquet. The homecoming is scheduled from 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock with the Elba-Hartford football game at 8 o'clock. After the game a reception will be held from 10 to 11 o'clock and a dance from 10 to 12.

Operation Scandal!

Drayden Smith, on commenting on the weather, peanut and election conditions, stated that the moon will cross the equator Friday night and after Tuesday night he predicted rain, rain and a freeze.

He said the election will be very close in the nation as a whole but the South will remain solidly Democratic right on. He failed to state whether he figured Stevenson or Eisenhower would bring the President weather conditions following Tuesday's election.

Mr. Smith said the peanut harvest is progressing rapidly and good yields are being reported from most sections. Quality of peanut hay is the best he has ever seen.

RAIN EVERYWHERE
"Uncle" Ace Lowery returned home Sunday from a four-week visit with relatives in Tampa, Fla. He said it rained most of the time he was there and he was greatly surprised to find it so dry here. Politics in the state are not and the voters badly aroused. He predicts the Democrats will carry the state, though. He said he means to vote Democratic like he has voted all his life—that he is too old to change now.

Privilege License Deadline Is Friday

Probate Judge J. O. English issues a warning that Friday, Oct. 31, is the deadline for obtaining privilege licenses covering all lines of businesses. He said the collection of privilege license fees is an unpleasant feature of the duties of his office. The law requires him to collect penalties for late payment.

The license inspector will make a check of all licenses issued up to midnight, Friday, Oct. 31 so there is no opportunity to get around the regulation.

MARRIAGE LICENSE
One marriage license was issued the past week at the probate office to Roland J. P. Harrison, 27, Samson, Rt. 1, and Mary Charles Kelley, 21, Samson, Rt. 1.

TOO YOUNG TO REMEMBER

Rains Tells Demos to Get Out the Vote

Get all the Democrats out to vote Nov. 4 because Alabama is still Democratic, Albert Rains, congressman from the fifth congressional district, told Coffee County party leaders at a fund-raising dinner Thursday night. Over 170 persons attended the $5-per-plate dinner to hear Rains attack Eisenhowers and the Republican party.

Rains struck at the opposition by saying the Democrats are taking care of the farmers with a price support program and by backing REA and TVA. On corruption in government, he stated his party had been on guard against it as Democrats had been chairman of committees ferreting out wrongdoers.

Eisenhower's qualifications were attacked because he was a military man with no civil experience in business or government.

Advantages the South holds in Congress under a Democratic regime was brought out as the fact that Southerners hold the chairmanship on many vital congressional committees where legislation is really passed.

Tardy Poll Tax Payers Will Not Be Able to Vote Nov. 4

Persons who couldn't vote in the April primary because of back poll taxes can't vote in the general election, Nov. 4, St. Gerrett, attorney general has advised Probate Judge J. O. English.

His letter reads: "On October 8, I advised you that a person, possessing all of the other requisites of a qualified elector, who was due poll tax on Oct. 1 but failing to pay the same on or before February 1, 1952, does not become eligible to vote in the general election to be held Nov. 4 by the payment of such poll tax before October 1 and the date of such general election."

"After so advising you, the Supreme Court of Alabama, in answer to an inquiry from the Governor of Alabama, rendered an advisory opinion on October 21 which confirms my previous holding."

Feed Democrats
Band mothers served the dinner. Sam Sawyer is chairman of the Coffee County fund-raising committee. E. W. Akins was in charge of the entertainment. Mrs. Kline Bentley decorated the school lunch room where the dinner was held.

Enterprise Planning Gala Celebration For Armistice Day

Enterprise is planning a community-wide holiday for Nov. 11, Armistice Day, under the sponsorship of the Enterprise Rotary Club and other civic groups in Enterprise.

The program will include a parade at 1 o'clock in the afternoon. Tanks, artillery, troops of a drill team, several army bands and the Coffee County High School band will participate.

A football game between the 164th and 125th Infantry Division Regiments will begin at 2 o'clock in Peanut Stadium. These are two of the top teams at Camp Rucker.

A free barbecue for military personnel will be held at the VFW club at 4:30 o'clock. Each soldier is allowed one guest. A crowd of 3,000 is expected.

A street dance will be held at night between the court house and bell weevil monument.

Trades from Camp Rucker will be sent into homes in Enterprise as guests for the noon meal as part of the program.

Enterprise is extending an invitation to all the surrounding towns to visit them Nov. 11 and take part in the activities.

Elba Loan & Insurance Co. Moves Into New Quarters

Elba Loan and Insurance Co., owned and operated by Mr. & Mrs. Basil Whitman, moved to their new offices on Brantley Road Tuesday.

The recently completed two-room office building is located on the lot next to the Whitman's home. It has cypress paneling throughout and is well-lighted with large Louver windows and a feature of the building is the way around the building is a work like venetian blinds. The windows do not go up or down as swing out, but are made in a series of small shutters that open and close like a venetian blind.

The two-room office has been set up so that the insurance and loan business is carried on in one room and the car business in another. The building is air-conditioned for the summer and has radiators for heat for winter.

At the present time, Mr. Whitman said he had about 25 extra pickups on the lot. He invites the public to visit him in his new location.
